Getting Involved

Some members support the Friends group simply by attending luncheons and paying their annual membership dues, while others become more involved in activities and events. The choice is yours.

Please check any of the below if you are interested:

- Helping with monthly Book Review Luncheons (set up, clean up, making & donating sandwiches)
- Helping with small fundraising efforts, such as bake sales and raffle baskets
- Volunteering at book sales or rummage sales
- Representing the library at community events

- Traveling to Albany on a bus once a year to show support & advocate for library funding

(Contact library director, Melissa Correia, for more information on these volunteer opportunities.)
